Senator Rupp, Senator Conway and Senator Baack, please report to the Chamber, the house is under call. Do you wish to proceed or wait for the three, Senator? Senators Rupp, Conway and Baack are missing here still.

SENATOR WESELY: Well, let's go ahead. Roll call in reverse order, if possible.

PRESIDENT: May we have your attention please. We will call for a roll call in reverse order. (Gavel.) The motion is the adoption of the Wesely amendment to LB 1251. Call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken.) 21 ayes, 22 nays, Mr. President. (Vote appears on page 1861 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. At this time the Chair would recognize the Speaker.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I would like to have your attention for just a few moments. Senator Haberman, Senator Haberman, I would like to have your attention for just a few moments because I know you will all be interested in this. We are going to talk about the liquor licensing, the interstate banking thing, caboose, nonpriority bills and so forth for just a moment. First of all, we are running into trouble. I want to warn you now, I don't want you to come in later and say, I didn't know we were running short of time. We are in trouble already. We must get with it if we are going to get any of these Select File bills across. We still have time if we will buckle down and pay attention, be here more than we have been in the past so we don't spend so much time on call of the house. We spend an awful lot of time on that. So, assuming that we get through with the Appropriation bills today, and I'm assuming a lot there, tomorrow we will go to Select priority and in the afternoon we will go to three General priority bills, one of them is LB 1007, that old accounting
